

Sermon Outline

Sermon Title: The Good, The Bad, and The Snuggly (Different approaches to fathering)
Big Idea: A godly father models a good/godly life, disciplines effectively and is accessible
Scripture: Proverbs 14:27, 29-34; 15:1-5 and Ephesians 6:1-4

Outline:

#1 The Good...

- Provide a good model to emulate: Reverent, Patient, Peace-filled, Press into God, Discerning, Do the Right Thing (Prov 14:27-34)

#2 The Bad...

- Sometimes, when it comes to decision-making or discipline, you've got to be the "bad guy" but in a good way (spare the rod, spoil the child... Prov 13:24)
- We need to take into consideration that every child is unique and also the child's stage of development, social setting and circumstances

#3 The Snuggly...

- A father must be present - or accessible - to his children in a meaningful way, whether the children are 5 months or 50 years old

#4 Tying it together...

- "Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger by the way you treat them. Rather, bring them up with the discipline and instruction that comes from the Lord" (Eph 6:4 NLT)
- You will minimize "provoking your children to anger" when you model a good/godly attitude, discipline effectively, and are appropriately involved in their lives
